THE ROYAL CLAY WORKS.

Wheeling's Stockholders Pay the Annual Visit of Inspection to them. A number of prominent citizens of this city who are financially interested in the Royal Clay Manufacturing Company, of Uhrichsville, O., left yesterday morning over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway to inspect the com-

Wheeling railway to inspect the company's works, which are located three miles west of Uhrichsville.

The following well known gentlemen comprised the party: Mr. William B. Simpson, Mr. J. N. Vance, Mr. A. Wilson Kelly, Mr. Morgan Ott, Mr. Howard Hazlett, Mr. Clement Hess, Captain C. J. Rawling, Mr. William H. Irwin, Mr. Christian Steinmetz, Mr. James Cummins, Mr. R. B. Simpson and an INTELLIGENCER representative. The party was under the guidance of Mr. A. J. Baggs, president of the company, who placed a special car at their service. The run of fitty-nine miles was made in very good time. The company's works are among the largest of the kind in the country, owning 142 pany's works are among the largest of the kind in the country, owning 142 acres of ground, a good portion being occupied.

The clay banks, which are situated at the foot of of a low hill, are practically inexhaustible, and of easy access to the works, being within 100 feet of the main building. The company also is the beneficiary of a queer freak of nature. The vein from which the clay is taken slopes to a basin at almost the centre in the rear of the works, and running east and west, 1,300 feet each way, with a rise of 27 feet on the east, and 22 feet on the west.

The works are running in full this month for the first time since they

The works are running in full this month for the first time since they started, 30 kiins being in operation. The manufacturing department is running in full, consuming over 200 tons of clay each day, 200 men being employed in various processes of making the ware. The present capacity in sewer pipes alone is 500 thirty inch, 4,000 three inch, 1,500 they inch, fully two miles of the three inch pipe being turned out each day. The works are only the second in the country making the thirty inch pipe, very few clays possessing the tensile strength to make them.

possessing the tensile strength to make them.

The building in which the enormous output is made is simply gigantic, having seven acres of floorage, and being four stories in height, each floor being 410 feet long and 210 feet wide. The lower floor is used for drying purposes, and is heated by steam. The three upper floors are used for the moulding of the ware and storage of unfinished product.

of the ware and storage of unfinished product.

The whole inspection by the party was a series of constant surprises over the completenoes of the whole concern, from the immense yards, filled with crockery and sewer pipes of all descriptions, to the minutest detail of the making of them. The company is at present turning out a number of fancy crocks and umbrella stands of an ornamental nature as well as plain crocks.

The party returned at a very late hour last evening immensely pleased over the trip and the hospitality of the

A GREAT PRODUCTION.

"The South Before the War," to be at the Grand Before Long.

Whallen & Martell's spectacular "South Before the War," is one of the greatest combinations to-day before the people. They have just completed a four week's engagement at Chicago to the largest receipts of any company for some time. They carry a car load of scenery, two yoke of oxen, a trick jack and sixty musical specialty people. The curtain rises on a cotton field scene, The curtain rises on a cotton field scene, with the negroes busily engaged in picking cotton. The scene is true to nature, and as the busy darkeys pick the cotton and sing sweet old plantation melodies, the audlence is transported to the fields of the sunny south. The first act sees the return of an old runaway and his reception by his wife and children. The meeting is full of humor and pathos. The young master, who had inherited the plantation from "Old Eph's" former master, beats the old and pathes. The young master, who had inherited the plantation from "Old Eph's" former master, beats the old man and drives him olf. The pleading of the planter's daughter and sister soften the master, and the old man is called back; the negroes are given a half-holiday, and the fun begins. Songs and dances follow each other in quick order until the old runaway attempts to join in and falls dead at the feet of his wife. After this follows a number of specialties, a scene on the levee, the landing of the Robert E. Lee. This is followed by prize buck and wing dancing open to all comers. An excellent quartette is also a feature. The scenes close with a negro campmeeting. And such a campmeeting! It is an old-fashioned one in every sense. The old preacher holds forth, and those who "get religion" are plentiful. The campmeeting runs smoothly until a young man gets the wrong girl, and then the fun begins. Razors and pistols soon clear the grounds.

The singing and dancing are excellent. The characters are in good hands. The principal characters are in heads

The singing and dancing are excellent. The characters are in good hands. The principal characters are in the hands of white actors, Charley Howard, Old Eph; Betty Golden, Aunt Chloe; L. J. Grace, The Planter; May Golden, Mrs. Jenny Peyton, and Daisy Golden, Nellie Peyton, the planter's daughter. They fill their roles acceptably.

"SPIDER AND FLY."

A Fine Production of an Enjoyable Spectacular Plece.

The best company ever seen in the production of the "Spider and the Fly" was greeted by a large and enthusiastic house last night. Unstinted applause attested that audience's appreciation of one of the best productions of a similar one of the best productions of a similar nature ever seen in Wheeling. Shapely women, strong specialties, charming singers, nimble dancers and superb cos-tumes made up a most pleasing enter-tainment. Miss Georgia Putman, in singers, nimble dancers and superb costumes made up a most pleasing entartainment. Miss Georgia Putman, in the role of Zamiel, gave a most fascinating portrayal of the avil spirit. Besides being an actress of exceptional ability, she is one of the most beautiful as well as shapely women before the public. Miss Bertie Crawford, the Tennessee nightingale, who is endowed with a most captivating voice and good looks, gives a vivacious interpretation of the part of Lord Razule Datale. The balance of the company is exceptionally clever, whilst the specialties are of the highest order. The chorus was a commendable feature of the performance, being especially well trained. The Laporte sistors' rendition of several tuneful ballads was received with great appliance.

A rousing business meeting of the Republican marching club was held last night in the mayor's office last night, at which all the necessary arrangements were made to attend the McKinley meeting to-night at Etnaville. It was decided to meet at the mayor's office at 6:30 o'clock and leave promptly at 7 o'clock, headed by the Climux cornet band and a drum corps. The club will march to Bridgeport, take part in the parade and assist in eccorting Governor McKinley to Ætnaville, where the speaking will take place. A red lantern was adopted for the club. These have been ordered and will arrive at noon to-day. The price of the lantern will be fifty cents, each member to pay for his lantern. Seventy-two lanterns have been ordered and these will be left at the store of John W. Crooks for the members of the club and each man can get one on calling for it any time after 1 o'clock and paying the price. The lantern will add greatly to the appearance of the club.
